

ONE STORY
AT A TIME

Pumpkin Patch

Sponsored by Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Corvallis
- Immigrant & Refugee Support Team - to benefit One Story at a Time

SATURDAY,
OCTOBER
17TH
2020
9 AM - 1 PM

Come on Down to the Farm!

4690 SE Booneville Drive, Corvallis
(just north of Homegrown Gardens off of Hwy 99W)

Park on the street, walk down the drive, and there's the pumpkin patch, waiting for you to choose from among the many happy organic pumpkins grown specifically to help refugees and bring you joy!

There are also a few parking spaces closer to the patch if, for any reason, you are unable to walk down the drive. And there will be several UUFC volunteers to assist you in any way that they can.

Suggested donation for the pumpkins is $5, but simply pay what you can! Organic grape juice will also be available for purchase.

Get the family out and visit the farm!

SUNDAY,
OCTOBER
18TH
2020
NOON - 2:30 PM

UUFC Parking Lot

2945 NW Circle Blvd, Corvallis

You will have the option to drive through and select a pumpkin assisted by a UUFC volunteer, or you can park on the street and walk into the north side of the parking lot to pick a pumpkin from those displayed at the trailer.

Suggested donation for the pumpkins is $5, but simply pay what you can!

An RSVP indicating which day you would like to pick out your pumpkins is not required but would be appreciated to help in planning.

RSVP to Elona Meyer atelonameyer@icloud.com if you know whether you're going out to the Farm on Saturday, Oct. 17 or to the UUFC on Sunday, Oct. 18. But come regardless!
